The first University of Nairobi Research Week officially commenced on October 22, 2018, with the official opening by the Chairman of the University of Nairobi Council, Prof. Julia Ojiambo.

The Research Week is specifically intended to foster discussions on research activities and findings, create a platform for presentation of academic papers and showcase innovation illustrations and foster partnerships with players in the research enterprise in the various sectors.

10 conferences with 522 research papers and projects will run through the week in different campuses.

The Research Week will be an annual event that will be held in October.
