The first group of University of Nairobi scholarships awardees received their scholarships during a meeting held on Friday 26th October, 2018 at the University of Nairobi Towers, VIP Lounge on 5th Floor. The students were from School of Public Health, Institute of Nuclear Science and Technology, School of Arts and Design, School of Business, Institute of Climate Change and Adaptation, School of Medicine, Centre for Bioinformatics and Biotechnology, School of Mathematics, Wangari Maathai Institute, School of Economics and School of Physical Sciences.

The meeting was chaired by the Director, Graduate School, Prof. Lydiah Njenga who urged the students to be aware of the duration of their programmes and make sure they complete their courses on time. She also advised the students to read and understand their programme documents as well as the common regulations.

The Senior Assistant Registrar, Mr. Bernard Mwangi took the students through the terms and conditions of the UoN scholarship.

The scholarships were awarded to students from various schools pursuing masters programmes in the 2018/2019 academic year.
